REDICK, SAUNDERS EARN FIRST TEAM ALL-REGION WOMEN'S BASKETBALL HONORS

(INDIANA, PA)—Glenville State senior guard Rachel Redick has been named as the Daktronics Women's Basketball East Region Division II Player of the Year by a vote of the region's sports information directors.

Redick, the WVIAC's all-time leading scorer, was previously honored as the WVIAC's regular season Player of the Year and tournament MVP. The Franklin, PA senior has led her squad to 30-2 mark and a #2 national ranking heading into this week's NCAA Division II East Regional hosted by GSC.

Salem International's Jeannie Saunders, the East Region's top scorer, was also named to the first team all-region squad. The Pitt Johnstown pair of Allison Krischer and Jessica Zapf took second team honors.

The complete team follows:

WVIAC Recognizes "25 at 25" All-Time Women's Basketball Greats

(PRINCETON, W.Va.)---A panel of 31 past and present coaches, administrators, players, and media members have selected the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's "25 at 25" squad. 25 all-time great players, along with five top coaches, have been picked to celebrate the 25th anniversary of women's athletics under the WVIAC banner.

55 players and 12 coaches were included on the final voting ballot for the "25 at 25" team. Players were required to win a major conference award, earn first team All-WVIAC accolades twice, or score 2,000-plus career points to earn inclusion on the ballot.

The University of Charleston and West Liberty State had the most player honorees with five each. Glenville State was represented by four selections. Alderson-Broaddus, Bluefield State, Fairmont State, and Salem each had a pair of picks. Concord, West Virginia State, and West Virginia Wesleyan earned one spot apiece.

"We are proud to honor our women's basketball players that have built a great tradition in the WVIAC," said league commissioner Barry Blizzard. "These players and coaches, along with many others, have helped make the WVIAC one of the top women's basketball conferences in Division II.

Former Glenville State star Tracy Wyatt was the lone unanimous selection as a player. Charleston's Lisa Lee and West Liberty State's Joanna Bernabei were listed on 30 of the 31 ballots. Other players that received 25 or more votes include: Sandy Chisar (Alderson-Broaddus), Donna Gordon (West Virginia State), Vicki Huffman (Fairmont State), Lola Jones (Bluefield State), Charlotte Powell (Salem-Teikyo), Rachel Redick (Glenville State), and Sherry Winn (Charleston). Redick is the team's only active player.

Three current coaches are among the five all-time mentors. Glenville State's Steve Harold and West Liberty State's Lynn Ullom were on all 31 ballots. Sherry Winn, who is the only honoree as a coach and player, is the other active coach. Morris Harvey/Charleston coaching legend Bud Francis and former Bluefield State coach Tom Jessee round out the five sideline selections.
